SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER TERM, 1947.

No. 304 Misc.

GEORGIA M. SPRUILL, Petitioner,

vs.

DANIEL E. CAMPBELL, EXECUTOR, Respondent.

PETITION FOR REHEARING OF PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

To the Honorable, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States:

Your Petitioner, Georgia M. Spruill, in proper person, respectfully prays for rehearing of the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari hertofore filed herein, and as grounds say:

1. That the undisputed undisputable facts which the records in the cases here listed do confirm the fact, that when the United States Court of Appeals affirmed, the judgment of the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia, with no exceptions noted, save one, minor change, the Court below committed an error which justice, requires this Court to correct. Appeal No. 5290, Spruill v. Ballard, et al., 61 App. D. C. 112; 58 F. (2d) 517.

2. The record here showing the involvement of government official: U. S. Attorney, Police Court Judge, Municipal Court Judge, U. S. Marshall, Police Court Property Clerk, May H. Dickerson (clerk), in a vicious conspiracy with Ballard, et al., to swindle petitioner out of her property is such a shock to public conscience that in Equity, the fact, demands of the Supreme Court of the United States relief that will make right prevail over wrong.

3. That when denying petitioner's right to printing of her record under 42 Stat. 666 the act was, and is, a discrimination in favor of one having money with which to pay for printing and against the one having no money with which to pay for these necessary costs.

4. That with all the disadvantage being forced to poverty brought about the facts in the record of the cases shown listed here are sufficient to prove beyond doubt that your petitioner is by right, entitled to possession of her real estate property and to collect on judgment by default, the $92,733.00 she claims is due her.

Wherefore Petitioner prays that a rehearing be granted of its Petition for Writ of Certiorari, and that Writ issue.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGIA M. SPRUILL,
In Proper Person.
